Vega released their fourth album "Who We Are" on 13th May just a couple of days after starting a three week tour with rock icons Magnum. The tour included a gig in The Limelight in Belfast on 27th May. I'd posted an interview with lead singer Nick Workman in October 2014, following the release of their previous album. I arranged to meet the guys before they went on stage in Belfast to record a short interview and catch up on what has been happening since. I spoke to Nick and guitarist Marcus Thurston.

The interview was included on the NI Rocks A-Z Show on Rock Radio NI on Tuesday 31st May, along with 4 tracks from the new album. It can now be heard on our MixCloud page - <https://www.mixcloud.com/NI Rocks/interview-with-nick-marcus-from-vega-on-the-ni-rocks-a-z-show-31st-may-2016/>

The interview has been transcribed and posted below.
